

HOTEL NIEDERSÄCHSISCHER HOF

Hygiene concept

Dear guests,

we look forward to welcoming you to the Hotel Niedersächsischer Hof in Goslar.

The pandemic is not over.

We rely on the personal responsibility of our guests.

Therefore, we ask you to voluntarily wear a mouth-nose protection at the hotel.

Please only use the elevator individually or with people in the common household / room.

Disinfection is available at all entrances and exits.

If you notice any Covid complaints, please report them (by phone) at the reception. You are not allowed to leave the hotel room. We will inform you about the further process and put you in contact with the health department.

Reception

Please always keep a minimum distance of 1.5 m from our employees and other guests. Please refrain from physical contact (shaking hands etc.).

Please note the plexiglass partitions at the reception and do not try to bypass them or to enter the reception.

You will receive a disinfected room card, please keep it with you.
We would be happy if you pay your bill on the evening before your departure in order to avoid queues at reception in the morning.

On the rooms

Information material and accessories are available at reception.

The rooms will not be cleaned automatically every day during your stay.
We can clean your hotel room on request.

HOTEL NIEDERSÄCHSISCHER HOF

Breakfast in the Rosengarten restaurant

We serve breakfast from 7 a.m. to 10 a.m.

Please select your wishes from the breakfast list and hand them in at the reception by 7 p.m.

Please do not sit down at a table yourself, wait in the entrance area with the necessary distance from other guests for a service employee who will escort you to a table.

You can only remove the mouth and nose protection after you have sat down at the table.

Your individual breakfast is served at your table.

If necessary, you can change your breakfast selection for the next day.

Use of the toilet is only possible in your room.

Our employees have been trained in our house rules and are obliged to implement them at all times. Please follow the instructions of our employees at any time.

If you have any questions, our employees are at your disposal at any time.

We wish you a pleasant stay,

Monika Sester
Director
